BOYNTON BEACH, FL--Elizabeth Eubanks has just returned from an expedition in Alaska, now she will share her experiences with a room full of teachers who are preparing for a new school year.

Eubanks will speak at Boynton Beach High School auditorium Wednesday, to more than six hundred teachers attending "It's Not Easy Being Green," a science symposium.

The day begins at 8 a.m. and will continue with many workshops and lessons all designed to charge the science teachers for the upcoming year.

Elizabeth worked in Barrow, Alaska assisting researchers to unlock the frozen mysteries of carbon. She was joined by climatologists from Florida International University.
